

THE FATHER'S DREAM FOR 2016

“The Year of Unlimited Possibilities”

A Note from Schlyce...

Happy New Year!

Can you believe it? It's 2016! Ready for more fun, adventure, and fulfillment than ever this coming year?

Recently as I sat with the Father listening to His dreams for us in 2016, He called this year "The Year of Unlimited Possibilities." I don't know about you, but that excites, challenges, and motivates me all at the same time!

But as you'll see, calling 2016 "The Year of Unlimited Possibilities" wasn't the most exciting thing He said. In fact, that was just His opening line. He's got so many miraculous things planned for us this year, it's going to take some ridiculous mind renewal just to be able to receive it all. Seriously, there is just sooooo much more of heaven for us to experience and give away each and every day!

So, as you read through and digest what the Father spoke to me about this new year, I really encourage you to invite the Holy Spirit into a conversation about it. I believe He's going to highlight some specific things that He wants to chat with you more about. One of my favorite sayings that I use all the time is "less is more." I use this phrase in a lot of different contexts, but with the prophetic it really applies.

It's not the quantity of words that we hear from God that transform us and our lives. It's the words that we truly receive and assimilate into our belief systems, to such a degree we act on them, that make a difference. That's when we move from simply being edified, encouraged, and comforted by a prophetic word to being transformed by it.

My prayer for you is that this word will be a transforming word and that 2016 will be one of the most remarkable, miraculous years of your life!

Much love,

Schlyce

The Father's Dream for 2016: "The Year of Unlimited Possibilities"

Happy New Year Beloved!

Welcome to 2016, the year of unlimited possibilities!

I hope you are as excited as I am about all of the things we are going to experience this year. I have so many things planned for us to enjoy together. And, I have more than a few surprises up My sleeve. It brings Me great joy to see you receiving and enjoying My goodness, and this year, I plan to spoil you royally.

2016 is a great year to believe for more. 2016 is a great year for you to experience more of My goodness, more of My grace, and more of My generosity. What is your heart's desire? What is it that you are hoping to see come to pass this year? In other words, what do you want Me to do for you this year?

Do these words sound strange coming from Me? Do they sound too good to be true? Well, they are scriptural you know. My Son said these words to the blind man and I am saying them to you today.

"What do you want me to do for you?" - Mark 10:51

Truthfully, these are some of the most powerful words you can hear from Me. They connect you directly to My heart for you and My ability towards you. And, they also bring up and reveal the unbelief in your heart, if there's any there. Why do think that it seems easier to believe My Son did miracles for people in His earthly ministry than it is to believe He wants to do the same for you in 2016?

Go back and read that scripture again. Now, imagine that you're that blind man and that the blindness represents a miraculous gift from Me that you want to see come to pass in your life. Again, I'm asking you, "What do you want Me to do for you this year?" Go ahead. Answer My question. Be bold in your request. Believe that I am able to do it. Believe that I want to do it for you. Then, receive My yes!

In 2016, I want you to treat everyday like it's Christmas. I want you to open gift after gift after gift from Me this year. I want to shower you with My goodness every day of the year. I want to overwhelm you with abundant life. I want you to experience the victory of Jesus, the name above all names!

During the 1st part of this year, I want you to focus on upgrading your "receiver" and becoming miracle-mind. Your current capacity to receive from Me is the only true limitation you have in this world. I want you to practice tuning in and staying tuned in to the unlimited supply of heaven that continually surrounds you.

I have a meditation for you that I want you to practice to help you wake up and stay awake. So, close your eyes child so that you see. I want you to see the reality of all of the unopened presents under our Christmas tree. I realize Christmas is over, but I have hundreds of unopened gifts for you. There's enough for you to open several every day during 2016.

Now go ahead, grab one with today's date on it and open it. What I am giving you today? What do you see inside? Use your eyes of faith and receive it My child. Receive it in faith! How do you do that you ask? Well, it's simple really. It's like any other gift you receive, except it's spiritual before natural. You have to see it before you see it! You have to use your eyes of faith. You have to receive it from Me in the Spirit before you'll actually see it in the natural.

How about we take a moment right now and ask the Holy Spirit to get involved. Let's ask Him to enlighten the eyes of your understanding and give you a clear mental image of Me granting your request. Ask Him to help you receive My gift. Let Him show you your future. Then, focus, focus, focus, until you can see it clearly, as clearly as Abraham saw his promised heir when he looked at the stars.

What you focus on is very, very important. What will you choose to focus on each day? Like any year, there will be plenty of opportunities to get distracted and discouraged. The enemy and his kingdom of darkness still oppose us and reign in the hearts and minds of many. But, My dear one, don't look at the darkness. Look at Me and shine! Open your presents, reflect My goodness, and dispel the darkness!

My heart is full of surprises for you this coming year. I have so many gifts that I want you to receive. You know what they are because I have buried a seed of desire for each one in your heart. Just allow desire to spring forth so that you can receive them. Remember, every good and perfect gift comes from Me.

Dream with Me for a moment won't you? What exactly will 2016 look like if you wake up every morning and look under our Christmas tree to find and open the gifts that I have reserved for you that day? Well, it will be one extraordinary, miraculous year. I can promise you that! You'll be overflowing with so much abundant life, you'll have to start giving it away! As you do, My goodness shining through your life will be a sign, in the midst of the darkness, that I am exactly who I say that I AM - the good Father, the only true source, that never runs dry.

Trust me my child. As My goodness overtakes you this coming year and you walk in the realm of miracles every single day, people are going to want to know your secret, and you'll get the opportunity to introduce them to their real Father, Me.

I'm so excited. Let's go!

Love,

Your Heavenly Dad
