

First of all, beloved, you are the beloved. You are My beloved. You are My chosen one. I chose you before the foundation of the world. I chose you to live inside of Me. And I chose you to be My temple, My house that I would live inside of where I would dwell and I would be most at home.

You are My home, child. You are where I belong. And vice versa. I am your home. I am where you belong.

So much of My kids' lives are spent trying to find where they fit in, trying to find where they belong. But what I want to say to you today is that you are found. You belong in Me. You fit in perfectly inside of Me.

The idea of rejection, of separation, of independence - those ideas all come out of the illusion that you are existing somewhere you're not. Your existence is found in Me. I am your very breath. I am holding you together at the innermost part of your very being. I am the core of your substance. I am the originator of you, the sustainer of you, the very source of the concept of you.

And as such, only I see you fully. Only I fully know you and fully understand you. And in order for you to see you, to fully understand you and to fully know yourself, you must step into My perceptions. You must step into My understanding and into My perspective of who you are.

At the foundation of that definition is Me, it's Jesus, it's the Holy Spirit. The foundation of your being is the fullness of the Godhead. And built upon that foundation is incredible glory! I have made you more glorious, more wondrous, more incredible, more miraculous than you have imagined, than you have dreamed, than you have ever thought about.

And My thoughts about you and the way that I see you are yours to know, are yours to understand. I want you to see yourself the way that I see you. I want you to experience My life and who I've created you to be fully, with Me in Me, every single moment of your life.

And so today, what I want you to receive is an upgrade. I want you to believe that right this very moment, there's a light that is shining around you. The brightness of the light that shines from within you, Me, the light of the world, shining bright, bright, bright and increasing now to the next level of brightness, into the next level of brightness, into the next level of brightness, until it's so bright, it's blinding.

And I want you to receive this blinding light as an impartation, as a supernatural work of the Holy Spirit that is blinding you to the natural world and blinding you to the natural you, the human you that you relate to more than Me.

The intensity of this light is growing and growing and growing now until you can no longer open your eyes at all. But that doesn't stop it from shining way beyond your natural eyes into the very core of your being, into the place, the deepest place, of your consciousness. Now, beyond your consciousness, deep into your spirit.

And I release now an explosion of that light that enlightens your eyes, opens your ears, and expands your spirit, your spirit man, your spirit person, your spirit woman. This explosion now is expanding your spirit, expanding your spirit, wider, higher, deeper. Expanding it beyond your natural body.

There's an expansion now.

Your spirit man is the real you. And it's ascending now, it's ascending above the natural you. It's ascending above your natural understanding. At the same time, it's permeating in every cell of your body, every part of your being, every fiber of your being. It's expanding into every crevice of your thinking, every neural pathway. Spiritual reality, spiritual understanding, spiritual sight, spiritual leadership, spiritual mastery over the natural, over your natural mind, over your natural body.

This is the year where your spirit will begin to operate at a level of mastery over the natural you, over the natural realm, and over everything that is three dimensional reality.

I would say the words come up higher, but it's not really a higher - it's a higher dimension, even though it's not up. It's a more powerful dimension, even though it's unseen. But this is the dimension that you were born to operate from. You are not a natural being that visits the invisible. You are an invisible being, visiting the natural.

And as you begin to meditate on this reality and begin to use your spiritual eyes and partner with the Holy Spirit for inspired, awakened imaginations of your spirit being larger than any natural physical material reality, you will transcend natural limitations. You will step into the zone of acceleration. Acceleration and domination over time, over matter, over space, and you will begin to transform matter. You will begin to dominate in ways that you have longed to do and in ways you haven't known to long to do.

This is an invitation, child, to step into supernatural living.

An invitation, child, to do greater works. Because you in Me and Me in you as a spiritual reality, as a spiritual dominating force, is unstoppable. And there are doors that I have called you to walk through, there are places that I've called you to go that cannot be accessed any other way. They cannot be naturally opened. They must be supernaturally walked through.

And in the same way that Jesus appeared to the disciples and walked through walls and walked through water, the material realm will no longer define what is possible for you. It will no longer limit what you can do.

I want you to think of 2021 as a year of training, as a year of learning how to live larger than life. And what I mean by larger than life, I mean larger than your natural life. To lead with your spirit.

For your spirit to show up before your natural body gets there. For your spirit to walk through any barrier, any limitation, any closed door that I've called you to walk through. You've been living too small. You've been living under the natural man. And it is time to transcend all of that and soar.

There's no place you can't go in the spirit right now, there's no problem that you can't solve in the spirit, right now. There is no reality that is realer than spiritual reality, right now.

So step in, child, step into the reality of who you really are and expand, expand, expand your reach. Allow your spirit to reach what the natural man can't touch, and go freely in the spirit where I'm calling you to go in the natural. Show up in the future that has yet to manifest and bring it back to the now.

Time is your ally. Time is your servant. It has never been meant for it to control you. It was always meant to be palatable, to be moldable, to be something that you had dominion over.

This is a year of exploits. This is a year of going places with Me, in Me, as Me.

Nothing can stop you if you grab hold of what I'm saying.

There is no "no" for your spirit. Spiritual work, spiritual training, spiritual expansion, spiritual reality, spiritual manifestations. This is what I am training you in. If this sounds foreign to you, well, buckle up! And stay connected to where I'm calling you to be connected. For the training that you need, I will provide.

You were born for more than what you've experienced up to this point.

So say yes, My child. Raise your hand and say, "choose me, pick me!" Get in agreement with Me because you're already chosen. It's already been provided. And now is the time for you to wake up and change the world. Wake up! The blinding light is available, and it will wake you up every day, every day if you take the time to just enter in and see. See what I'm saying, enter into what I'm speaking right now, and learn. Learn of Me. Watch how I do it. Learn how to transcend every natural reality and transform it with spiritual reality.

In Jesus name.
